FACULTY SECRETARY RESIGNS

Jacquie McCoy to Fill
Vacancy Temporarily

OFFICE TO BE MOVED

Kathy Simmons, Secretary to the Faculty, has announced her resignation which is to be effective on June 14, 1991.

As a temporary measure to get us through the beginning of the Summer Quarter, Ms. Jacquie McCoy has been appointed by Dean Howington to fill the vacancy created by Ms. Simmons's resignation. Ms. McCoy had been employed as a secretary/assistant with the Alabama Canine Law Enforcement Officers Training Center.

An "in-house" advertisement of the faculty secretary vacancy will be conducted so that members of the support staff who are interested in transferring to the faculty secretary position can make application.

The office of the faculty secretary has been moved from its current location to the office formerly occupied by the secretary to the Shelton State Foundation. That office is located next to Betty Walker's "area" just outside the office of the Dean of Academic Services.

Faculty members who need material typed or copied should contact either Betty Walker or Jacquie McCoy.
